What of any of the above information do you not want published in the SITU directory?

What historical eras are you most interested in?

Do you have suggestions for where an event should be held? (low cost is important)?

What types of social events would you like to experience in the next year?

Are there areas (set-up, clean-up, publicity, entertainment) that you would be willing to help with this year?

What time of the week and day work best for you for an event?
